Introduction

The 'Calton deeds' were extensively used by J.W. Morkill in his Parish of Kirkby Malhamdale, 1933 where many are translated. They were called 'Calton deeds' by Morkill to distinguish them from the 'Malham Tarn deeds' from which they were separated when the former Lambert estates were split up in 1785.

These 'Calton deeds' were part of the archives of the Lister family, Barons Ribblesdale, and were calendared by Mrs. Blanche Tempest c.1903 together with deeds etc. relating to Gisburn, Swinden, Twiston, Oldham and Horton in Craven, and material relating to the Lister family. These documents are now part of the Bradfer Lawrence collection (MD 335) at the YAS. Mrs. Tempest's calendar contains a letter from J.W. Morkill dated 24 Feb. 1909 acknowledging receipt of the 'Calton deeds' on loan. These subsequently remained with Morkill family papers at the offices of Charlesworth, Wood and Brown, solicitors, Skipton, where they were listed by the National Register of Archives in May 1965. A few further Calton deeds were added to Mrs. Tempest's list subsequent to her first arrangement of the deeds. These were not borrowed by Morkill, but remained with the main collection (now MD 335).

The present arrangement of the deeds follows that made by the NRA in 1965. Mrs. Tempest's references are given at the end of each entry.

The descriptions given in this list are copied from the NRA list.
