FEOFFMENT TO USES WITH WARRANTY

15 September 1580

[In initial letter O]

In God I trust 1580

To all the faithful in Christ to whom this present writing shall come, John Bentley senior of Northowram in the County of York, Clothier (sends) greetings in the eternal Lord. Know that I the aforesaid John Bentley, being specially moved in this matter by diverse advantages reasons and considerations, have given granted and by this my present Indented Charter have confirmed to Edward Bentley of Haldeworth (Holdsworth?) in the same county Clothier, one messuage or my tenement and nine acres of land meadow and pasture with appurtenances in Clayton in the said County of York and now or lately in the joint or separate tenures or occupation of me the aforesaid John Bentley, Robert Firthe and Elizabeth his wife their Assign or our Assigns. And also all other land, tenements, rents, reversions, easements and hereditaments whatsoever of me the said John Bentley in the aforesaid Clayton or elsewhere within the parish of Bradford in the said County of York. To have and to hold the aforesaid messuage or tenement, land, tenement or hereditament And also all and singular other premisses as above already granted by the present (writing) with all and singular their appurtenances to the aforesaid Edward Bentley, William Wayde and their heirs for ever to the following uses and purposes, namely, that the aforesaid feoffees and the survivor of them and their heirs henceforth stand seized of the aforesaid messuage or tenement and the other premisses already granted with their appurtenances to the uses of me the aforesaid John Bentley and my assigns for the term of my natural life. And after my death to the uses of John Bentley junior my son his heirs and assigns for ever of the chief lords of that fee by the services thence owed and accustomed by right. And truly I the aforesaid John Bentley senior and my heirs will, by the present (writing), warrant and defend for ever against all people the aforesaid messuage or tenement, lands, tenements and hereditaments and also all and singular other premisses as above already granted by the present (writing) with all and singular their appurtenances to the aforesaid Edward Bentley and William Wayde and their heirs to the aforesaid uses in manner and form as is aforesaid. And in addition, be it known that I the aforesaid John Bentley senior have attorned appointed and set up in my place my beloved in Christ Richard Bentley my eldest natural son to enter on my behalf and in my name the aforesaid tenements with appurtenances or any parcel thereof and thereby to have and take full and peaceful possession. And after this entry thus had and made, then furthermore to give and deliver full and peaceful possession and siesin to the aforesaid Edward Bentley and William Wayde and their heirs for the aforesaid uses, according to the tenor, force form and effect of this my present indented charter then made, having and about to have approval of all and whatever my said attorney shall do in my name in the premisses as firmly and valid as if I was taking part in it in person. In witness of which thing I the aforesaid John Bentley senior have affixed my seal to one part of this present indented charter in the possession of the aforesaid feoffees; truly the aforesaid feoffees have affixed their seal to the other part of the same charter in my possession. Given the fifteenth day of September in the twentysecond year of the reign of Lady Elizabeth by the grace of God Queen of England, France and Ireland defender of the faith etc.
